Leap into the jet-setting career of international business!

Through this program, you will study in the United Kingdom as a launching pad into understanding the complexities and nuances of global business.

Compare and contrast the political and economic environment of the United Kingdom to the United States. Examine the advantages and disadvantages of the corporate form of organization. Gain an understanding of the social, political, and cultural forces that influence global business decisions and operations, the ethical challenges in the global marketplace, and other current issues such as diversity, technology, and concern for the physical environment.

Program Highlights:

- Explore English and Scottish history, culture, and civilization
- Understand the challenges of international business through visits to companies doing business in both the US and the UK
- Further develop your overseas experience and your resume
