The Honors By Contract is a distinctive requirement in the Honors Program. It gives you greater access and exposure to ideas in your major, and is the first step in conducting significant undergraduate research. Learn about the nature and value of this requirement from five current students from different majors. They will discuss with you their experiences and how this requirement worked in their major.