Honors Program Research Forum
Spring 2015 Schedule

February 3rd at 6:30 p.m.
The Intersection of National Interest and International Justice: An Examination of the Selective Nature of Humanitarian Intervention
Dani Villa (Political Science)

February 16th at 6:30 p.m.
Bridging the Digital Divide: A Case Study in International Service Learning
Kyle Heubner (Business & Spanish)

March 4th at 6:30 p.m.
Honors-by-Contract Research in Computer Science and Graph Databases
Melissa Iori (Computer Science)

March 25th at 12:00 p.m.
Look Up: A Discussion of Our Use of Technology
Anna-Lena Hathaway (Criminal Justice)

April 6th @ 6:30 p.m.
A Consideration of the Future of Artificial Intelligence
Kulvinder Lotay (Computer Science)

The Honors Program Research Forum provides an informal setting for students to present their research projects. Some of the papers presented will also be given at national conferences. All presentations are in the Mair Room on the Third Floor of the Library.