Learning Disabilities Support Program The Office of Special Services provides a comprehensive range of academic support services and accommodations that promote the full integration of students with disabilities into the mainstream college environment. Services and accommodations are individualized to meet the needs of each student and may vary depending upon the disability and/or course content. For further information, including eligibility requirements, please visit www.marist.edu/specialservices/. To apply for this program, a separate Office of Special Services application is required and available at www.marist.edu/specialservices/prospect-ldis-admission.

Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP) This program is for New York State residents only. The Arthur O. Eve Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP) is a division of Student Academic Affairs. HEOP is a comprehensive academic support program designed to assist students who otherwise might not be able to attend college due to educational and financial circumstances. Students must meet the income guidelines established by the Board of Regents. HEOP students receive a broad range of innovative services, including academic, personal and career counseling, individual and small group tutoring, leadership training and student development workshops. To apply for this program, a separate Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP) application is required and available at www.marist.edu/academics/multicultural/heop/apply.html.

Freshman Florence Experience Program The Freshman Florence Experience Program (FFE) is a one-year study abroad program in Florence, Italy. This program is specifically designed for freshmen who wish to pursue foundation course work in a study abroad environment that promotes cultural exploration. FFE students return to the New York campus Fall semester of their sophomore year. For more information on the FFE program and the selection process, please visit www.marist.edu/ffe.

In the space below, or on a separate sheet of paper, please answer the following question: Why do you believe the FFE program is right for you?
