Welcome Back Students!

Dear Marist Student-Athletes,

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome both our upperclassmen and freshmen to Marist for the 2013-2014 academic year! It’s hard to believe we are back in the swing of things already after a very busy summer here in the Enhancement Center.

In 2012-2013 our student-athletes not only excelled in the classroom, but made us proud when they represented us in June in Indianapolis, IN and Jacksonville, FL. Here are some of their accomplishments:

- 12 consecutive years leading the MAAC in student-athletes named to Academic Honor Roll
- 246 student-athletes named to 2013 MAAC Academic Honor Roll
- 2 CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-District honorees in 2013-14 school year
- Matty Berman of men’s soccer participated in the NCAA’s National Career in Sports Forum in Indianapolis
- Jackie Frey of women’s soccer was awarded The 2013 Bob McCluskey Insurance MAAC Postgraduate Scholarship
- Steve Guarino of football received the Wilma Rudolph Student-Athlete Achievement Award at the N4A National Convention in Jacksonville, FL

Some of you are familiar with our services because you have been mandated to them or you’ve sought us out on your own. We encourage all of you to use the facility to study or meet with a tutor, to talk to one of us about your plans after college, or to learn more about community service or other programming we offer. Keep an eye on your e-mail, our Facebook, and Twitter pages for information on upcoming programs that will cater to ALL of our student-athletes!

Cammie, Dasha Theresa, and I look forward to another great year and hope that your success in the classroom mirrors your success on the field, court, course, track, river, and in the pool!

Sincerely,

Alyssa M. Gates
Director of Student-Athlete Enhancement

Social Media Updates

The Center for Student-Athlete Enhancement has recently updated our Facebook and Twitter pages.

Both sites will have helpful information in pertaining to academic updates, community service projects, Red Fox Challenge, reports, career development opportunities and much more. You do not want to miss out on the exciting upcoming things that will occur this semester.

Also, students can update us with community service events with pictures that were taken while working in the community. All appropriate photos can be uploaded on our Facebook page: Marist College CSAE. Don’t forget to use our service hashtags this year when reporting your service projects, which are #letsdothisrfc (Red Fox Challenge) and #maristcsae.

Wellness Fair
The 16th annual Wellness Fair will occur on Friday, September 6, from noon to 4:00 p.m. in the Gray Gym in the McCann Center. The event is open only to the Marist community and serves as a way to begin our year together with the reminder of the importance of taking good care of ourselves. The fair will include nutritionists, fitness centers, chiropractors, blood pressure screenings, and both traditional and nontraditional approaches to health and stress management. There will be giveaways, food and free massages! For more information, contact Roberta Staples: Roberta.staples@marist.edu.

Major and Minors Fair
On September 25, 2013 from 1130am-130pm, the Major and Minors Fair will be held in the Student Center Cabaret. If you’re undecided or entertaining a major change, this fair is the right place for you. The Major and Minors Fair is also a great opportunity for students to explore minors and certificates offered at Marist College. This annual fall event brings together representatives from all majors offered at Marist College. Students are given the opportunity to speak with Deans, faculty and upperclassmen in their major areas of interest.

What happens after Add/Drop ends on Friday, August 30, 2013?
After Friday, August 30, 2013, you may no longer drop a class, but instead, must withdraw. There will be a W visible on your transcript. You may withdraw from a class until October 28th. If you withdraw after October 28th, you will have a W/F on your transcript which is the equivalent to an F and is figured into your GPA. Before you withdraw from a class, please set up an appointment with your athletic advisor, as well as your faculty advisor.

Freshman Seminars
Attention all freshman! Freshman seminars will occur three consecutive Mondays in the month of September. The dates are September 9, 16, & 23rd. Please mark your calendars accordingly and pay attention to your email to find out which time you will have to attend your seminar session.

Writing Center is NOW OPEN!
The Writing Center will open on Tuesday, September 3 for the Fall 2013 semester. The new location is in Library 334, which is directly across from the Center for Multicultural Affairs, and down the hall from Career Services.
