The WORLD FILM PROGRAM invites you for a screening of two short films:

Stray Tales and Leaving Sleep

Followed by a Q & A with filmmaker Jan Muller

Stray Tales (Germany, Israel, Spain, USA 2012 / 21 min) tells the story of four emigrants who unknowingly trace each other's urban paths. Their lived memories, linked on multiple levels and transcending beginnings and endings, transform the apparently banal into a meditation on mobility and human connection. Shot on location in Berlin, New York City, Tel Aviv and Vejer de la Frontera, the film features English, German, Hebrew and Spanish.

Fri. April 10, at 5:30-7 pm @ Lowell Thomas 019

Leaving Sleep (USA 2014 / 29 min) Comprised of four poetic documentary tableau, Leaving Sleep follows the morning rituals of a single mother, a financial trader, a nun and a homeless man, recounting their dreams and fears as they pass over the threshold between sleep and wakefulness.
