

MARIST

FACULTY POSITION OPENING IN THE SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS

Marist College, located in New York's historic Hudson River Valley, invites applications for:

Assistant Professor of Spanish

The Department of Modern Languages and Cultures of the School of Liberal Arts at Marist College invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor of Spanish to begin in August 2010.

Instruction, Research, and Service

The department seeks a generalist with the ability to teach comprehensive content courses for the Spanish major and language courses for non-majors. Tenure track positions at Marist College carry a 4/3 or 3/3 course load, depending on scholarship production.

Preferred Qualifications

Candidates must have a Ph.D. in hand at the time of appointment and native or near-native proficiency in Spanish and English. The successful candidate must demonstrate a record of teaching at the undergraduate level using educational technologies.

The Department

The Department of Modern Languages and Cultures offers two major tracks in French and Spanish with interdisciplinary options, as well as courses in Arabic, Chinese, English as a Second Language, German, Italian and Japanese are available to support global studies, teacher education, international tracks in other disciplines and, in general, career opportunities in key areas of domestic and international service where knowledge of a foreign language increases the level of success.

The School

The School of Liberal Arts reflects the central educational values and commitments of Marist College and of the disciplines of the liberal arts. Through their dedication to the Core/Liberal Studies program, an important component of the divisional curriculum, Liberal Arts faculty provide leadership in support of the aspiration of our institution to blend career preparation with a liberal arts education and, thus, they play a crucial role in shaping the educational experience of every student who attends Marist College.

The Campus

Marist College's 180-acre campus overlooks the Hudson River in the heart of the historic Hudson Valley, midway between New York City and Albany, the state capital. Marist, recognized for the excellence by U.S. News & World Report, The Princeton Review, Kiplinger's Personal Finance, Entrepreneur Magazine, and Barron's Best Buys in College Education, is noted for its leadership in the use of technology to enhance the teaching and learning process. Marist is dedicated to helping students develop the intellect and character required for enlightened, ethical, and productive lives in the global community of the 21st Century. The College fulfills its mission by pursuing three ideals: excellence in education, the importance of community, and the principle of service.

Marist College is strongly committed to the principle of diversity and is especially interested in receiving applications from members of ethnic minorities, women, disabled individuals, and other under-represented groups.

Applications

Please visit <https://marist.jobs.edu> to learn more or to apply. Online applications accepted only. The closing date for applications is December 1, 2009.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EMPLOYER