Established September 2008
Mission:

“To engage the Marist community in events and activities that highlight diversity and multiculturalism creating a climate of access, equity, and inclusion that celebrates the rich contributions of all cultures, and empowers students to achieve academic success by preparing them to become engaged global citizens.”

Services provided to ALL STUDENTS

- Provide assistance with cultural awareness and self-identity
- Sponsor campus wide cultural lectures and programs
- Act as a resource to first generation college students
- Conduct workshops/events for first year students in the Core curriculum
- Develop unique cultural networking opportunities

The CMA is also proud to offer support services and advocacy to First Generation College Students. We encourage all first generation college students to visit our office and attend our events.

To CREATE opportunities for students to become:

Culturally Aware
Ready to Tackle College
Empowered to be self-sufficient
Academically curious about the world
Tenacious in pursuit of success
Engaged members of the global society

CMA Sponsored Programs
