WELCOME TO MARIST

Congratulations on starting your journey at Marist. This Passport contains the necessary information to guide you through Welcome Weekend please carry it with you at all times. Begin by locating your group assignments below and familiarizing yourself with the mandatory and optional activities so you know where you need to be during your first days on campus.

All events are first come, first serve.

The back of the Passport is where you will collect stamps marking your attendance at Welcome Week events. Students who complete and return the Passport on Thursday, September 2 will be entered into a drawing for a free semester of books.

For more information about Welcome Week and other resources, please visit our website at www.marist.edu/studentlife/welcome or contact your First Year Programs Mentor. You may also contact the Office of First Year Programs at (914) 631-2317.

SO, WHAT’S NEXT?

1. Get to know your RA, RD, and Mentor. All of these individuals sponsor programs as well as work individually with you to ease your transition to Marist.

2. Get to know your professors and your Academic Advisor. Faculty are the first source to your academic success. Don’t forget the Academic Services you learned about.

3. Get involved. Learn about College Activities. Most events are sponsored by your Student Programming Council and Student Government Association.

Check our www.marist.edu/calendar.
