ARMY STRONG. START STRONG.

The FY 2013 Culture and Language Immersion Deployment application period is

OPEN!

The Department of the Army Execution Order 070-11 requires United States Army Cadet Command (USACC) conduct overseas cultural deployments in support of worldwide Army Security Cooperation plans and the Army Culture and Foreign Language Strategy.

USACC performs this task by providing Cadets to perform missions all over the world during the summer training period (15 May – 30 August). These missions include non-governmental organization (NGO)/Humanitarian service learning projects, Military Exercises, Translator Support, Military to Military contacts, and most recently Cadet English Language Training Teams.

To determine which Cadet attends Culture and Language Deployment Program missions, USACC Cultural Understanding and Language Proficiency Division annually solicits applications from Cadets through a competitive process.

QUALIFICATIONS

To be eligible to apply and be selected for a CULP Deployment, Cadets must be CONTRACTED, MEDICALLY QUALIFIED (DODMERB COMPLETED), and in GOOD STANDING.

APPLICATION TIME LINE

Cadets apply using the USACC application procedures listed below during the period 15 September 2012 through 2 November 2012. Once a Cadet completes the on-line application, CULP Division requests approval for attendance from his or her Professor of Military Science (PMS). After the close of the application period, CULP Division sends Brigade Commanders an Order of Merit List (OML) for all recommended Cadets. CULP Division bases the OML on the Cadet's GPA, ROTC GPA, language skills, and other considerations. After receiving the OML, Brigade Commanders select attendees from their Battalions in accordance with their Cadet Professional Development priorities. They make their final decision by matching each Cadet's skills against the language and skill requirements for the quota. Traditionally, the selection rate is between 40 and 70 percent (455 selected from 1218 applicants FY11; 1194 selected from 1600 applicants in FY12).

WHAT YOU SHOULD EXPECT

Culture and Language Deployments are NOT tourist tours. Each Deployment has a mission that supports the Embassy's strategic plan for that country. Many of these missions are performed in austere conditions which include unusual living conditions, foods, and risks of common traveler's illnesses. However during these missions, Cadets receive an education experience unmatched by anything you will do in college.

Deployments are usually 31-33 days long consisting of 5 days Pre-Deployment Soldier Readiness Processing and Training at Fort Knox, 21-23 days in the foreign country to complete the mission, and 3-5 days of Post-Deployment Soldier Readiness Processing, also at Fort Knox.

Deployments are generally organized as a section of 9 Cadets and 1 Cadre Leader (usually a Senior Officer or a Senior NCO). Often, the CULP Division will combine two sections to form a platoon.

“While deployed, USACC pays for the Cadet’s transportation, food, lodging, and incidentals. Cadets are not authorized per diem, however they are eligible for ROTC base pay if deployed in excess of 28 days.”

Cadet English Language Training Team is one of the most popular events for the US Embassies overseas. Here a US Army Cadet is helping a Royal Thailand Academy Cadet practice the English that he was taught earlier in the day.

While deployed, USACC expects Cadets to perform as future officers in the United States Army as they are under scrutiny by host nation military members and citizens. Cadre leaders evaluate leadership and competence during the entire deployment. These evaluations become part of the Cadet’s Professional Development Training File used during the Basic Branch selection process. Cadets are on Active Duty for Training orders and therefore under the jurisdiction of the Uniform Code of Military Justice.

The application process has two steps.

First, Cadets need to register on the Army Cadet Portal using these procedures.
