“Know the Code”

Off Campus Behavior & The Marist College Code of Student Conduct

The Pre-Amble

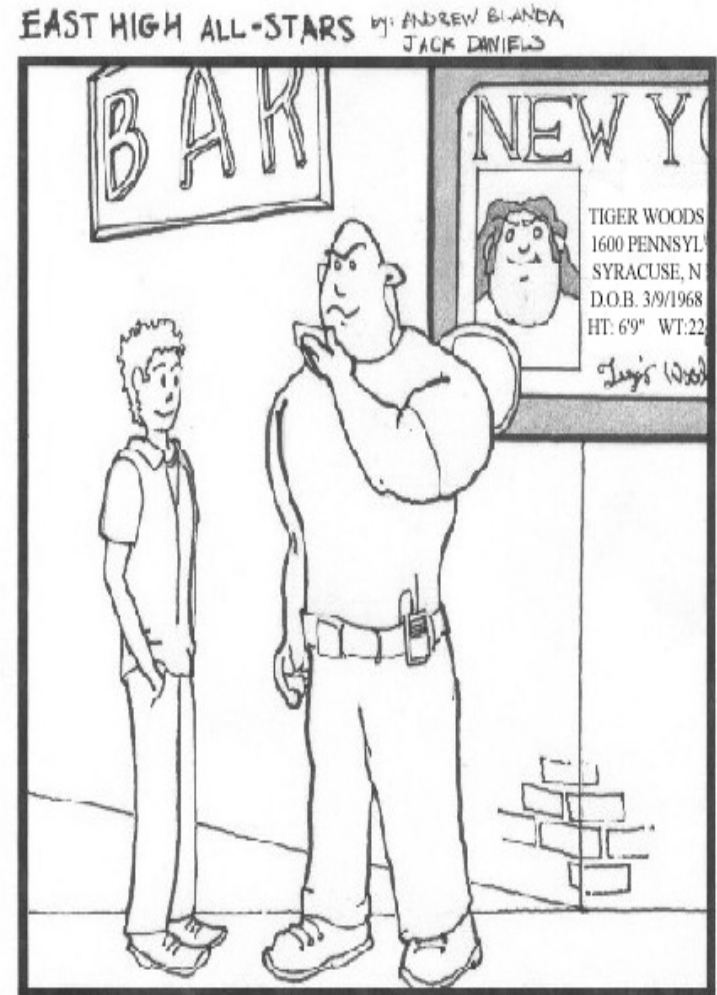

“ Students are expected to respect and abide by local ordinances and state and federal statutes both on and off campus.

As members of an academic community, students are held accountable to the College’s Code of Conduct that clarifies those behavioral standards considered essential to the fulfillment of the College’s philosophy, mission and goals.”

... Whether or not you are arrested

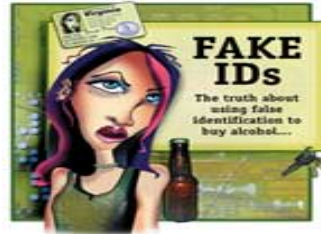

... Whether or not your case is dismissed...

“Marist holds that all individuals who are members of the College community have a responsibility to represent themselves in a lawful and responsible manner at all times.” (page 3)

THERE WAS SOMETHING FISHY ABOUT THE I.D.
BUT HANK JUST COULDN'T PUT HIS FINGER ON IT.

What That Means To You

- The College ACTS on ALL violations of the Code that come to our attention.
- YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE for abiding by College Policies as well as Federal, State & Local Ordinances.
- As you now know, possession of a fake I.D. is a SERIOUS violation of the law which, in turn, is a SERIOUS violation of the Code of Conduct.

Potential Penalties

Each case is reviewed individually. The general range of penalties for a student found in violation of “(A08) Federal State or Local Law” is listed below:

Disciplinary Dismissal. Permanent separation of the student from the College. (Please note that students suspended or dismissed for disciplinary reasons will not be entitled to any refund of tuition or residence fees)

Disciplinary Suspension. Separation of the student from the College for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified Deferred Suspension from the College. A definite period of observation and review. If a student is again found responsible for any further College policy violations including failure to complete previously imposed sanctions or adhere to previously imposed conditions, the student will automatically be recommended for suspension for a minimum of one semester. This sanction results in the loss of six priority points.

Disciplinary Probation. This sanction shall be primarily used in cases of serious or consistent policy violations. Probation shall be for a designated period of time and includes the probability of more severe disciplinary sanctions if the student is found to be violating any College policies during the probationary period. Any violation committed during the probationary period will result in a review of the student’s status at Marist. This sanction results in the loss of five priority points.

Remember, Fake ID’s are usually detected while other violations are occurring...this results in a more severe sanction...

Fake ID's at Marist?

You Might REALLY
Need Your Driver's License

So, What's The Big Deal?

Why Underage Drinkers are not Welcome at Licensed Taverns

Why underage drinkers are not welcome at licensed taverns

- Risk of arrest for serving a minor
- 1st violation: server can be suspended or fined
- Hearing before a judge: possible additional fines/jail
- Repeat violations can result in removal of liquor license

(true for the owner as well as all tavern employees)

The risk of getting caught is higher for the purchaser than the maker of a false ID

With a Fake ID, you'll meet people

Comments from a local attorney

Comments from a fellow Marist student

- Using another person's legal ID is criminal impersonation
- Loaning your license or ID to another is also illegal
- Misuse of a Marist ID has additional consequences

Jessie got a nose job so she could look more like the girl on her fake id

Releasing personal information to an unknown person is very risky

...and can we talk about what it's like to be REALLY drunk?

- Staggering, slurring, vomiting
(that's really attractive...)
- Your roommate won't mind holding your head over the toilet for you
- If you're walking around some areas in the city, there are people there who will be happy to help you home safely (not!)

- Maybe a visit here:
you could wait for 7
hours, get your stomach
pumped, and your parents will be so happy to get that bill and the call at 4 a.m.!

You might be using the fake id just so you can go out with your friends, but consider some of the other potential risks:

☹️ drinking excessively

☹️ risk of victimization/victimizing

☹️ driving while intoxicated
