

Digital Education Workshop

Faculty Showcase Series Spring 2018

Memos to Memes

Opening Up All Forms of Communication

Patricia Barniak-Atkinson
School of Communication and the Arts

Memos to memes grew out of frustration with a
SILENT 6-9pm Communication Research Class.
When students went online - WOW THEY OPENED UP!

Come and see how we could embrace all the “tools” in our communication toolbox to gain knowledge and hopefully turn that into respect and ... dare I suggest WISDOM!

WHERE

LT 225 Seminar Room
& Online in WebEx

WHEN

12:30pm- 1:30pm
Lunch will be provided
Tuesday March 6, 2018

REGISTRATION

CTE registration site:
<https://tinyurl.com/PatMemes>
Or Contact Digital Education
Office

Patricia Atkinson's career in education began at the Fort Gordon Army Education Center and branched into business development and consulting for Banner® software. Her roles range from Instructor to Advisor to Director Alumni Relations and Managing Director of Banner Education Centers. She has also worked for Augusta State College, Philadelphia University, The Institute for Ecosystem Studies, Mount St. Mary College and Marist College.

At Marist she works in Marist's School of Management teaching Business Plan Development, the School of Professional Programs teaching Communication Theory and School of Communication and the Arts, recently teaching Research Methods and Fundamentals of Public Relations and serves on the Campus Sustainability Advisory Committee. Her essential educational philosophy #MotivateEducateMentorCongratulate.

Pat is a Board member of Math & Physics Exploration, a member of the New York State Communication Association and the Association for Assessment of Learning in Higher Education. She judged the 2017 Northeast Regional Ethics Bowl. She volunteers with NY Special Olympics and Mothers Demand action for Gun Safety. She also serves as Principle Soloist and Director of Music Ministry for St. Denis Church in Hopewell Junction, NY.