

Scott Brenner, Corporate Partner, Parlatore Law Group LLP

Scott D. Brenner is a solutions-based strategic advisor in several areas of legal practice, navigating clients and colleagues through complex commercial transactions, regulatory matters, and litigation. Mr. Brenner has over 25 years of “in the trenches” experience representing entrepreneurs, investment professionals, banking institutions, domestic and international businesses ranging in development from early and emerging growth stages, to mid-Market and multi-national corporations.

Mr. Brenner’s corporate practice focuses on business formation and growth strategy, commercial contracts, employment, intellectual property, joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions, capital structure, private equity/venture finance and asset-based debt transactions in industries such as investment banking, financial products, technology and network security, consumer goods and services, health care, and real estate development. Mr. Brenner’s commercial trade practice focuses on international sales/purchases, shipment, warehousing, and distribution of goods, services, physical commodities and other raw materials. In this area he has advised and represented the world’s leading traders and producers of metals, minerals, agriculture and energy commodities.