

September 17, 2020

Craig Marshall

Craig Marshall, retired from IBM, is the Town of Clinton Historian and Vice President of the Clinton Historical Society. He gives presentations on local history, develops and presents historical exhibits, and is currently working with the Dutchess County Historical Society (DCHS) on their Veteran's Oral History Project. He is Chair of the DCHS Vice Presidents Group which is a collaboration of seventeen historical societies and municipal historians of Dutchess County. He and his wife Mary have been residents of Clinton for 38 years.