

MARIST

CENTER FOR CAREER SERVICES

Cannavino Library 332 | 845-575-3547 | Email Us | Visit Our Website

The overarching goal of the Marist College Center for Career Services is to endow students with the skills necessary to think critically about their futures and provide them with information and support that will lead to the achievement of their career objectives.

Network with employers and learn about job and internship openings during career fairs.

Marist students will have chances to network with Marist alumni during some events.

A career coach assists a student at a Resume Review Table event.

Career Connections Series MARIST
CENTER FOR CAREER SERVICES

Ryan Parbs '20

AMAZON

Preparing for Your Next Virtual Interview
Wednesday, February 24, 2021 | 10 AM EST
RSVP in FoxQuest

Marist alumnus Ryan Parbs, Senior Human Resources Assistant at Amazon, hosted a virtual Career Connections Series event.

Road to the Workplace trips provide opportunities to network with Marist College alumni and other professionals who work at a variety of companies. You can get a sense of an organization's culture and learn about available professional development opportunities. The trips are open to students in all majors. Here are some past destinations of Road to the Workplace trips:

CNN

Goldman Sachs

Google

Memorial Sloan Kettering

Schedule an appointment with a career coach using FoxQuest for help with these areas of professional development:

Cover Letter and Resume Assistance

Employer and Alumni Connections

Fellowship and Graduate School Advisement

Internship Opportunities

Interview Preparation

Major to Career Guidance

Setting up a LinkedIn profile

Scholarships and Fellowships

Follow the Marist College Center for Career Services on social media for information about upcoming events and initiatives for Marist students.

[Marist College Center for Career Services
Scholarship Fox at Marist](#)

@MaristCCS

@maristccs

Marist College Center for Career Services Group

Center for Career Services Online Resources

The following online resources are available for free 24/7 to all Marist students. We encourage you to schedule an appointment with a career coach to learn more about the following online resources. Please make sure to register for Focus 2 and InterviewStream accounts using your Marist.edu email address.

*Students must log in to their FoxQuest account using their MyMarist information and go to the Resources section to access their free Candid Career and CareerShift accounts.

FoxQuest: The Center for Career Services' central hub where Marist students can search for full-time jobs, internships, and part-time on-campus jobs. Students must also use FoxQuest to schedule one-on-one appointments with career coaches in the Center for Career Services and RSVP for career-related workshops, information sessions, and webinars.

Alumni Career Network: More than 1,300 Marist alumni are registered in the network to assist Marist students who are seeking advice about the world of work. Alumni help students in a variety of ways including advice giving via email or phone, informational interviews, job and internship referrals, job shadowing, mentoring, and more.

Focus 2: Are you undecided about your major? Use this online career guidance program to take inventories of your interests, skills, work values, personality, and leisure activities. The inventory results will reveal careers in the database that could be good choices for you to pursue.

Candid Career*: Explore career paths and specific roles by watching day in the life videos of professionals who work in different career clusters and at various companies.

CareerShift*: Search for, select, and store listings of positions across multiple job boards that appeal to you. Access in-depth information about companies and contacts that are posting jobs.

InterviewStream: Prepare for a video interview using this online simulator. See and hear yourself responding to interview questions.

iLearn Site: Join the Marist College Center for Career Services iLearn site (when you log in with your MyMarist information) to explore additional career development resources.