Snow Date: Friday, Jan 17th

Meeting Time: 10:00 a.m. – 11:15 a.m.

Description: We will examine the life and paintings of Andrew Wyeth, one of America's most celebrated 20th century artists. Wyeth rendered scenes of his everyday life in rural Pennsylvania and Maine, landscapes and portraits with exacting detail. His watercolor and tempera paintings often reveal the material world to be permeated with mystery and uncertainty. We will examine Wyeth's artistic family history, relationships with his subjects including the Olsons, Kuerners, Ericksons and Helga Testorf. The famous, "Christina's World" and many other samplings of Wyeth's work will be presented, often with the artist's own insights.

General Information

Center for Lifetime Study

Winter 2020

The purpose of the Marist College Center for Lifetime Study (CLS) is to provide opportunities for learning and fellowship for men and women 55 and older. CLS is a volunteer membership-run organization with a relaxed classroom atmosphere and no exams or grades. CLS operates under the auspices of the Marist College School of Professional Programs and is supported primarily by membership dues.

The objectives of CLS are: (1) to offer non-credit courses designed and developed by and for CLS members covering topics reflecting a variety of interests; (2) to encourage members to volunteer as committee members, course planners, coordinators and facilitators, according to their skills and interest; and (3) to provide a program of special events and other activities to enhance peer interaction.

Course Locations: Most courses are held at Locust Grove, the Samuel Morse Historic Site located at 2683 South Road in the Town of Poughkeepsie. The location of the classroom for each course will be posted at Locust Grove.

Parking at Locust Grove: Ample parking is provided adjacent to the Visitors Center building. Please follow the directions of parking attendants at Locust Grove. A limited number of handicapped spaces are available, however, the Visitors Center building and all parking spaces are on level terrain and easily accessible. Please be aware that you must display a valid New York State handicapped tag to park in a designated handicapped parking space. Please refer to CLS parking procedures for guidelines for handicap parking. Also, please note that there is no turn on red when exiting the main gate.

Do not call Locust Grove directly on anything relating to CLS activities.
ALL Locust Grove communication must be made through the Marist CLS Office.
