STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Board Reports

- DEI:
 - This past week, the DEI board worked on several projects and continued efforts to meet our goals. P. Cama met with the Cultural Club leaders to continue planning for the Cultural Dinner Dance, and they spoke about the logistical details for the United Games and Pause for Peace. P. Cama met with Alyssa White to delve into the planning and preparation leading up to the game, and A. White also touched base with Harrison Baker, the Athletic Associate's Director. On Wednesday, P. Cama hosted the panel discussion, where she had students as panelists and Dr. Edward Antonio as the moderator. Audience members found the discussion fruitful and insightful. On Friday, two board members went through Allyship Training with QTC, and they will be paired with a staff member in the future to conduct this training.
- Club Affairs:
 - The C.A. board to organize the club contact sheets that were collected on Thursday. Justice met with Oliver and Bob to go over chartered club budgets. Justice met with Oliver, Molly, Evan, and Neil to finalize the bills for the philanthropic committee.
- Safety & Security:
 - Amy and the security department are going to take first steps in parking allocation maps. Amy and her board and planning their first event for the semester, and Amy and the security department are looking forward to updating SGA on the parking plans they have
- Academic Affairs:
- Athletic Affairs
 - This week, the Athletic Affairs board met on Monday to discuss future events and student concerns. Sarah and Kyla placed the order for t-shirts for their tie dye event that will hopefully take place this Thursday. Additionally, she put out an interest form online and around campus for the club baseball event on October 11th. Following the interest form, Sarah and others will figure out transportation to the game. On Tuesday, Sarah, along with Kara Mitch from Marist Boosters, met with Daryl Richards to discuss the "Battle of Freshman Dorms" for homecoming. It was decided homecoming will be "Sean Stellato" Day, so the Athletic Affairs board is going to work with Daryl to implement the "color war" during a basketball game in the future. Lastly, the Athletic Affairs board is hoping to work on a "research project" to present to faculty and administration at McCann in hopes of adjusting the facilities hours.

- Student Well-Being

- This week, Molly continued to focus her efforts towards the Breast Cancer Awareness 5k. Molly met with Ana Domenici, Daniel Gough, and Bob Lynch to discuss the support of security during the 5k. On a separate matter, Molly met with Bob to discuss philanthropic opportunities. Molly, Oliver, Evan, Justice, and Niel met to draft a bill to add a Philanthropic Committee to SGA. Additionally, Molly met with a member of Academic Affairs who is interested in collaborating on an opportunity for students to hear from a neurologist on migraines. Finally, Molly began drafting a presidential committee; the Mental Health and Event Planning Committee in response to the high demand of interest for mental health initiatives on campus.

- Sustainability

- Emily met with the Sustainability Action Planning Committee to discuss an upcoming event and continue drafting the plan. Emily met with each of her executive board members individually to talk through their goals for the semester and ideas for potential projects. Emily hosted her second in person Sustainability Committee meeting to discuss these ideas as an entire group. Emily also attended the Student Athlete Listening Session to help improve the student athlete experience at Marist through the development of the Strategic Action Plan.

- Communications

- Financial

- The CFO met with the SGA President to discuss the issue of post-assembly lunches being funded through the SGA budget. Additionally, a meeting was held with the Vice President of Club Affairs to review proposed bill regarding the establishment of a Philanthropic Committee. Otherwise, the budget is looking good.

- Information

- '- Created voting link code for Fall Elections to be published this week - Upcoming meeting with Digital Services about new FOTY voting software
