Board Reports

- DEI:
 - This past week, the DEI board continued working towards their goals and initiatives. The theme for the Cultural Dinner Dance was decided this past Tuesday — Around the World in One Night. P. Cama met with Jake Finklea to finalize the date with the venue and update him regarding the planning timeline. For the Food Insecurity initiative, P. Cama met with Andrea Conner and A. Hibbert to provide any updates on meetings with DCC and Dutchess Outreach, and P. Cama introduced the existence of Food Corps, a CCEL student-led group, to A. Conner. Moving forward, A. Hibbert and P. Cama will work with Food Corps to work out the focus and efforts of the collective group more thoroughly. During the DEI board meeting, the board worked on updating resources to the DEI link tree and ensuring that they were helpful to students, faculty, and staff. Lastly, the DEI board helped to host the Pause for Peace initiative and United Game tailgate.

- Athletic Affairs

- This week the Athletic Affairs Board met on Monday night to discuss upcoming events. The Club Baseball game and the Breast Cancer Awareness 5k were a success! Sarah and her board are holding their Tie Dye event in collaboration with the Class of 2027 on Wednesday, October 16th.

- Student Well-Being

- It was an incredible week for members of SGA. This week, Molly attended the Marist Club Baseball game, which Marist SGA hosted. It was a great event and an amazing game to watch. Saturday was the Breast Cancer Awareness 5k, which Molly hosted alongside Ana Domenici, cabinet members, and board members. The 5k had a fantastic turnout! The 5k had 145 people sign up and raised over $2,200!! Molly will thank members of the SGA during the Assembly. The event received exceptional feedback from participants. Representatives from the American Cancer Society and Marist Health Services are looking forward to doing it again next year. Additionally, Molly met with Michelle Pantaleo and Bob Lynch to discuss an event collab with Pilates. They discussed what it would look like to finance the event. Molly will check in with them again next week.

- Sustainability

- Emily met with the Sustainability Action Planning Committee this week, and with her Marketing/Communications focus group to draft the plan and discuss upcoming Sustainability Event. Emily appointed her Deputy Vice President of Sustainability at assembly this week.

- Communications

- This week Hannah prepared her semesterly Comms Presentation and presented in front of assembly and is happy to announce that @maristsga has interacted with over 13,000 accounts on Instagram since taking over the account in August. Her board also prepared the United Games posting for the DEI Board and collaborated with Gourmet Dining to announce new positions with our inaugural Allergen Committee. Hannah also helped coordinate and order the remaining 5k materials and worked with photographer for event.
