

MARIST COLLEGE

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Board Reports

- DEI:
 - This past week, the DEI board continued its efforts to meet its goals and initiatives. On Monday, P. Cama met with Robin Torres to discuss matters regarding Marist Hillel and Gender Inclusive Housing. P. Cama also joined the Safety and Security board meeting to discuss their collaboration during Disability Awareness Week, during which DEI and VP Amy Zarebczan's board will host tabling pop-ups at two different locations. On Tuesday, the planning committee for the Cultural Dinner Dance continued their discussion and efforts for the event. P. Cama and her deputies met with each other to discuss different suggestions brought forth by other students, as well as issues that have come up. P. Cama attended the monthly Diversity Council, where members discussed feedback for the Social Justice Conference and engaged in discussions regarding creating a general culture for all Marist students through a RED FOX acronym.
- Club Affairs:
 - The Club Affairs Board did not conduct any business this week. They will however get back right into this upcoming Thursday.
- Safety & Security:
 - Amy and her board have continued to plan and finalize their disability awareness pop up event, and their DV awareness workshop. Amy and her board are also working on a woman's safety training event with the Poughkeepsie police department, and are looking to partner with the company birdie to get brand new safety alarms on campus.
- Academic Affairs:
 - Nothing new to report besides for meetings with Dr. Rinke, Sheridan, and Evan
- Athletic Affairs
 - This week Sarah and her board at their events in collaboration with the Class of 2027.
- Student Well-Being

- This week was midterms and fall break. Molly's board members are continuing to work on planning their events for the semester. She is assisting in all ways possible.
- Sustainability
 -
- Communications
 -
- Financial
 - The Chief Financial Officer is pleased to report that the budget is looking good.
- Information
 -
- Election Commission
 - The Election Committee has been focused on finding a transfer student representative. The committee found a candidate and an interview is being arranged.
- Class of 2025
 -
- Class of 2026
 - The board of class 2026 has nothing new to report.
- Class of 2027
 - The Class of 2027 had their first event of the semester. The event was really popular, and almost all 100 of the shirts were taken. Kyla Sevim and Sarah Mazella then attended the hockey game, where a chuck-a-puck took place during intermission. Although most kids were home on break, the event was still successful as the hockey players, some students, and parents enjoyed it. We had three winners, with prize baskets Kyla Sevim put together. We had several donations from ShopRite, Starbucks, Jersey Mikes and Moonshine bagels, which Sarah Mazella asked for. All in all, the event was a success, with posts up on the Instagram. The Class of 2027 is now discussing a pumpkin painting competition that will be taking place in 2 weeks. Kyla Sevim is also trying to get in contact with the drive-in theatre for another event, hoping to take place before winter break.

- Class of 2028
 - The Class Board of 2028 met with SGA's Chief Communications Officer to determine the best ways in which to reach students about upcoming events; Created an instagram specifically for the class of 2028; Brainstormed a broad list of event ideas, and determined a short list of events to be planned, details are being confirmed for the Class of 2028's first event.
- Chief Justice
 - Noah has been in contact with his board. He hopes to appoint his last associate in the coming weeks, and has nothing new to report.
- Parliamentarian
 - Neil has nothing new to report due to the lack of any proposed bills, charters, rules amendments or other documents in the past week.
- Event Planning Chair
 - Suzie is starting to make plans for decorations and catering for the themed assembly. Besides that she has nothing new to report.
- North-End Representatives
 -
- South-End Representatives
 - Nothing new to report
 -
- East-End Representatives
 - This past week Karina Syrota kept working on organizing an event with Andrea Connor to gather more concerns from the entire student body
- Distance Representative
 - Nothing new to report
- International Representative
 - S. Manandhar has been working closely with the International Student Services office to plan the upcoming Diwali-Tihar. Other than that, she has nothing new to report.