STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Board Reports

- DEI:
 - This past week, the DEI board began advertising the Cultural Dinner Dance. Ticket sales are now live! On Tuesday, P. Cama met with the Cultural Club leaders to also discuss the potential tour of the Kirk House in the next coming weeks. P. Cama continued planning efforts for the food insecurity/pantry initiative with DEM and Food Corps.
- Club Affairs:
 - Justice met with Oliver and Bob Thursday morning to discuss club management and developments. The club affairs board met Thursday night to plan out their agenda for the duration of the semester.
- Safety & Security:
 - Amy and her board are still working on their women's safety training, and are finalizing what date they want to have the event on
- Academic Affairs:
 - Ana's registration event and Migraine talk were both really great!! Ana is meeting Dr. Rinke and Sheridan this week to start discussing some details for faculty if the year. There will be a lot discussed in AAC this week including next academic calendar and pathway, minor and major "double dipping" policies.
- Athletic Affairs
 - The Athletic Affairs Board focused on circulating a form to get student input on the hours at McCann this week. The board will meet on Monday to decide how to get more student input.
- Student Well-Being
 - It was a busy week! Molly met with Robin, Ana, and Lauretta to discuss peer mentorship efforts on campus. They will be continuing discussions with Dr. Tarantello and various students. Molly also met with Bob and Suzie to discuss an alcohol safety event. It is unclear whether this event will be hosted before the end of the semester. However, Molly and Suzie agreed that if there is an appropriate need amongst the student body for an event like this, they will do everything in their power to meet the need. On Thursday, Molly attended a Migraine Education presentation to represent SGA Student Well-Being. She provided stress toys which were a great hit! Next week, Molly would like to survey the assembly's interest in participating in a de-stress/self-care event the week before finals.

- Sustainability

- Emily met with the Sustainability Action Planning Committee to discuss upcoming plans and continue drafting the plan. Emily met with her board members to discuss updates, future events and sustainability survey results

- Communications

- This week H. Tone produced materials for the De-Stress and Disconnect event and Registration Tabling. She also met with J. Seymour to discuss new ways to promote clubs charted through SGA. She also worked closely with the Class of 2026 and 2027 to prepare posts for their events coming up this week. She is excited to share that insight has increased by 64% in the last week and hopes to continue this momentum through the rest of the semester!

- Financial

- The Chief Financial Officer is pleased to report to the full student government assembly of the Speight/Spillane administration that the budget is looking good.

- Information

- The IT Council has upgraded the cio email address to host the Microsoft Forms displayed on the Website. Any additional forms or documents will now be moved under the email address as well. Information on how to retain this will be on the transition binder to ensure this progress maintains.

- Election Commission

- The Elections Commission spent the last week organizing the spring 2025 elections calendar. The commission selected dates and locations for the events of the spring election.

- Class of 2025

- Glenn and his board met with Bob this past Thursday. The board is planning a hot chocolate stand event on November 20th from 12:30-2:30.

- Class of 2026
 - The board of class 2026 will host their " '26 Tee-Time Custom T-Shirt" on November 12th at 4 pm, and is currently working on their second event that will take place on the first week of December 2024, nothing else to report at this time.
