Board Reports

- DEI:
 - Over these past two weeks, the DEI board worked on several tasks. First, the affinity groups and SGA's DEI board held another successful Cultural Dinner Dance. P. Cama met with Dr. Antonio to discuss Mon Afrique and Campus Climate survey for the next Spring semester. M. Francis continued to work with DEM's DEI chair for the DEI workshop on December 4th. P. Cama met with the Diversity Council to discuss the DEI retreat before the first day of the Spring Semester. Lastly, the Food Insecurity initiative is planning to visit the DCC food pantry on December 6th and conduct inquiries with Lacie Reilly.
- Club Affairs:
 - The club affairs board met with the Pre-Vet "club" last Thursday we they presented their plan for a recharter. They have completed the bylaws and the CFO, Oliver Dunn, was present at the meeting and had no concerns with their budget proposal. Justice met with Bob last Thursday morning to discuss end of year club management planning and report.
- Safety & Security:
 - Amy and her board are having their Womens Safety Training Event this coming Wednesday! Amy and her board are also preparing for the boards transition, and Amy's deputy will take over once Amy graduates. Amy will not be at this weeks meeting due to her Women's Safety Event, but wanted to express gratitude to SGA and everyone she has met while being here! Amy will always look back at the amazing time her undergraduate experience was, and a big part of it was because of SGA.
- Academic Affairs:
 - Nothing new to report.
- Athletic Affairs
 - Nothing new to report!
- Student Well-Being

- Over Thanksgiving, Molly worked on developing the SGA Student Well-Being Linktree, which is compiled with information attained by her board members from their respective offices. The goal of the linktree is to provide students with clear and digestible information about Title IX, Health Services, and Counseling offices at Marist. The toolkits are approved by the offices but are subject to change each semester. Additionally, Molly is working with one of her board members who is hosting a de-stress pop-up the day everyone returns to campus. Finally, Molly is in conversations about a Suicide Prevention Walk in partnership with Vassar and the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention.
- Sustainability
 - Nothing new to report.
- Communications
 - To start, the Public Affairs Committee wants to thank everyone who attended the bi-annual Town Hall Event, either as a cabinet member or as an audience member. Although attendance was not as high as expected, the board felt that the event was a strong success. They are also excited to announce that they are working with Gourmet Dining to coordinate a collaborative giveaway to celebrate the end of the Fall semester. H. Tone also collaborated with A. Zarebczan to create promotional materials for Safety and Security's upcoming Women's Safety Training and has coordinated materials with the print center for M. Donoghue. Lastly, the Public Affairs Committee has also posted in collaboration with the official Marist account as well as with the DEI Office to recognize the work of the DEI Board and Affinity Clubs on campus on the Cultural Dinner Dance.
- Financial
 - The Chief Financial Officer is pleased to report that the budget is looking good.
