Application Process

A Good Fit for the Learning Support Program is someone who is:

self-motivated

hard working

goal oriented

needs weekly
academic support, not just accommodations

committed to participating in the LSP

A Good Fit for the Learning Support Program is someone who:

believes in themselves

will accept assistance

has a high tolerance for frustration knows one's strengths and focuses on them can independently implement strategies taught in sessions has knowledge/acceptance of one's learning disability

Is the Learning Support Program right for me?

Am I receiving academic support in high school? How much?

Do I have a need for the academic support provided by the program?

Do I need the services of a Learning Specialist?

Do I only need accommodations?

Is the Learning Support Program right for me?

Will two 45-minute sessions per week with my Learning Specialist provide enough academic support?

Can I independently apply the strategies I am taught?

Is Marist where I want to spend the next four years?

Thank you for Attending!
