

Welcome to Leadership in the Global Workplace

Leadership Students,

A leader's ability to approach diversity from a perspective that can use individual differences to empower followers is becoming increasingly important in the global workplace. This course introduces students to the changing role of leadership within multicultural and multinational organizations while identifying the leadership skills necessary for preparing organizations for success in globally diverse environments.

Through out this course, you will have opportunities to continue to develop your own personal leadership styles through collaborative and individualized learning experiences.

As your instructor and guide, I am here to help you complete the course tasks. I trust that you will find this course to be challenging and enlightening. I look forward to working with you.

Respectfully,

Joel Baldomir
Marist College, SPP

Contact Information:

Joel.baldomir@marist.edu
845-553-3714

Learning Outcomes:

Articulate a definition of global leadership and explain the role of leadership in the global workplace.

Identify the leadership skills needed for leaders to be successful within multicultural and multinational organizations

Be able to identify and compare differing cultural values and differing worldviews.

Course Text:

Gundling, E. & Williams, C. (2021). Inclusive leadership, global impact, Aperia Global. ISBN: 0578913283