

Religious Accommodation Process

MARIST
UNIVERSITY

1

Student Submits a Request

Student submits a religious accommodation request through the Title IX & VI or Spiritual Life & Service website.

2

Request Received by Title IX and VI Coordinator

The request is acknowledged and reviewed by the Title IX & VI Coordinator.

3

Director of Spiritual Life and Service Included

The Director of Spiritual Life & Service is included in the communication and coordinates the student intake process.

4

Religious Accommodation Committee

The Director of Spiritual Life & Service brings the request to the Religious Accommodation Review Committee for discussion.

5

Determine Additional Support Needed

Depending on the nature of the request, other campus offices may be consulted for support or coordination. Examples may include:

- Residence Life
- Dining Services
- Athletics
- Physical Plant
- Other appropriate campus offices

6

Accommodation Coordination

The appropriate offices work together to determine and coordinate an appropriate response to the student's religious accommodation request.

7

Communicate & Implement

The outcome is communicated to the student, and if approved, implemented.

8

Follow-Up

The appropriate offices follow up with the student as needed to ensure the accommodation is understood and effectively implemented.

This process is for religious accommodations related to campus life, including residence halls, prayer, worship space, dining, and other non-academic needs. For academic accommodations, please contact your faculty member directly. If you have questions or need assistance, please contact the Director of Spiritual Life & Service.
