Capstone Experience

With Corey Fenstemacher, Psy.D.

Course Description

Capping Experience:

The course is intended to provide students with the opportunity to consider significant contemporary issues from integrative interdisciplinary perspectives, students are given the opportunity to develop a written project that synthesizes theory and application within their area of study. The number of themes will be limited to allow depth of consideration and breadth of research. Prerequisites: Senior standing, ENG 120

You will direct your learning for most of this course. You already have the foundation for success!

Required Textbook

NO required text for this course. Required reading and viewing will be posted in Brightspace.

Students will need reliable internet access and appropriate internet devices such as a laptop and/or tablet. Assignments will be submitted as Microsoft Office files (Word or PowerPoint). Google or Mac iOS files will not be accepted. If you use Google docs and/or Mac iOS software, it will be your responsibility to convert your file to the equivalent Microsoft Office file.

About the Instructor

I started my career in sales in advertising. My second career began when I returned to school to earn a doctorate in Organizational Psychology. There, I discovered a passion for instruction and facilitation, particularly working with adult audiences. I have worked for global consulting firms and have facilitated group dynamics courses internationally. I have also held positions within the Human Resource department of Time Inc./Time Warner. For over twenty years, I have been teaching adult college students, managers and executives. My favorite thing about teaching is that no matter how many times I teach the same course, or the same students, I learn something new from each group. This course is especially interesting because the capstone papers are unique to each student. I'm originally from the Utica area. My husband and I spend time between Brooklyn and the Cooperstown area with our 18+-year-old cat (Rollie Pollie Holy Cannoli). In my free time, I consult to business leaders, serve on Boards, co-facilitate Group Dynamics workshops and volunteer with animal welfare organizations.

Looking forward to getting to know you in our classroom.
