USA Funds Life Skills

Presented by:
Marist College, Office of Student
Financial Services
USA Funds Life Skills
Web-based financial literacy program

- Teaches you basic strategies for managing time and money wisely.
- Organizes complex information into clear-cut format.
- Allows 24/7 access.
USA Funds Life Skills
Web-based financial literacy program

- Listen to stories from other students about decisions they made and how it affected them.
USA Funds Life Skills
Web-based financial literacy program

Learn about:

- Financial aid and paying for college.
- Managing College/Higher Education and your personal life.
- Credit management, including credit reports and identity theft.
- Graduating from school and finding a job.
- Attending graduate school.
USA Funds Life Skills
Web-based financial literacy program

Personal Products
Select products that you will purchase this month.

☐ Hair gel, deodorant, toothpaste.
☐ A haircut.
☐ The latest pair of sunglasses.
☐ A couple of music downloads a week.
☐ Two DVD rentals a week at full price.
☐ A new pair of jeans, and a shirt... and another shirt.

Next

Play the Live for a Month interactive budget game and see if you can stay within a fixed monthly budget.
Life Lessons include interactive games, worksheets and resources to make tasks more interesting, such as learning about identity theft and creating a budget.