

Alexandra Kirby Commuter Senator

Ali Kirby is a sophomore political science and criminal justice major. She is running for commuter senator because she would like to be a voice for students who don't call Marist their full time home. She is currently serving as the sophomore class treasurer and she is a member of the Emerging Leaders Program, the National Society of Leadership and Success as well as a transfer peer mentor.

Ryan Blakley Commuter Senator

Ryan Blakley is a junior business administration major with a concentration in finance. He is running for the position of commuter senator. He is involved with the business club and has a passion for investment.

Edward Oser Executive Vice President

Ed Oser is a sophomore and a Biology Major with a Music Minor. He would really like to see improvement in student spirit with more pride in our school community, in all areas of campus life. He is a member of the Men's Swim Team, a member of Delta Epsilon Mu, and current VP of Athletic Affairs for SGA.

Annie Farragher Historian of 2019

Annie Farragher and is a current sophomore majoring in Psychology here at Marist! As the Class of 2019 historian, she plans to keep record and spread the word of all events and activities pertaining to her class through various forms of social media, including Facebook and Instagram. She is also involved in Marist Ambassadors and WMAR on campus.

Mitchell Xanders President of 2018

Mitchell Xanders is a junior Computer Science major and NSF Scholar from Lakeway, TX who, this past semester, served as President of the Class of 2018. If re-elected as Class President, he plans on working with his board to put on strong, successful events for the Class of 2018 to come together and enjoy their final year at Marist. Aside from SGA, Mitchell serves as Vice President of Zeta Psi fraternity on campus and works for the Athletic Department as a member of the Red Fox Network.

Isabella Duenas President of 2019

Isabella Duenas-Lozada is a Sophomore majoring in Criminal Justice with a minor in Communications, and a Pre-Law track. She is looking forward to potentially continue collaborating with her lovely board members and passionate groups on campus to promote a higher sense of community and school spirit. She also dedicates her time to The Circle as the Opinion editor, and started a Facebook group with the goal of bringing students together on Taco Tuesday.

Eric Johnson President of 2020

Eric Nels Johnson is a member of the class of 2020 and double majoring in History and Political Science. He held the position of class president during freshman year and now, with this wealth of knowledge and experience, will be much more effective at representing the entirety of his class and producing entertaining events throughout the year.

Anthony Laricchia Resident Senator

Anthony Laricchia is currently a freshman here at Marist College (2020). Although he is undecided, he plans on majoring in History and following a pre-law track. He is running to be a Resident Senator for he feels as if it is a great way to further involve himself as an SGA member and because he would love to represent the people of Marist College and our community.

Christopher Glogan Resident Senator

Christopher Glogan is a sophomore Communications PR and Advertising major with a minor in Digital Video Production. He is currently on the Club Affairs board, as well as being on the Campus Ministry board and heavily involved in the ambassador and tour guide programs. He could not be more enthusiastic to run for the position of resident senator! As a devoted and dedicated member of Student Government, he's well-prepared to bring his determination and innovation to listen to the ideas of the student body as well as focus on student morale and school spirit to ensure the continuous positivity of Marist campus.

Eric Seltzer Resident Senator

Eric J. Seltzer is a Junior majoring in Political Science and minors in History and Pre-Law. He is not a newcomer to Student Government in any sense of the word, having served two terms as Resident Senator, and this past year, as Speaker of the Senate. Throughout his tenure, Eric has worked tirelessly to provide an outlet for students in the Senate, taking on projects which include: Fox Den After Dark, Student Speaks Night, Mobile Office Hours, Student Center Revitalization, and, most recently, an overhaul of the Student Government Association Constitution to better reflect current values and campus trends.

Kelli Nienstadt Secretary of 2019

Kelli Nienstadt is a sophomore at Marist College studying Communications with concentrations in Public Relations and Advertising. On campus she is involved in Student Government, Dance Ensemble, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Tour Guiding, and Ambassadors! She has been the secretary for the Class of 2019 for the past two years, and she hopes to make it a third year!

Matthew Marotti Student Body President

Matt Marotti, is running for Student Body President with his running mate, Ed Oser. He is a Business-Marketing and Economics double major with a minor in Information Systems. On campus, he is involved in Ambassadors, Greek Life, and several other clubs and organizations; and he is also an Orientation Leader! He is eager to accomplish many things next year, including boosting school spirit, creating a textbook exchange program, and developing our own Marist app!

Thomas Ciravalo Student Body President

Robert Wheeler Treasurer of 2018

Robert Wheeler is running to be the Class of 2018 Treasurer! I am a Business/Finance major from Trumbull, Connecticut and he is also currently minoring in Accounting as well as Economics. For the past two years, he has been actively improving our classmate's experiences on campus through his employment at Student Activities and would love to take his involvement a step further by responsibly managing the class of 2018's budget to ensure future events will be properly funded.

Samantha Lauro Treasurer of 2018

Samantha Lauro is a Junior. She is a double major in Business Administration; marketing and Studio Art; Graphic Design. She has been in student government for two years (treasurer). She is in habitat for humanity, Enactus (club for ethical business) and works at the Office of Advancement and Steel Plant.

Anthony Liberti Treasurer of 2019

Anthony (AJ) Liberti is a sophomore studying Psychology with a double minor in Sociology and Cognitive Science. He is interested in running for class treasurer for the class of 2019. He is actively involved in the Honors Program, Student Government, Marist Students Ambassadors, RHC, Marist Fencing Team, intramural badminton, and he is an Honors Peer Mentor.

Karaghan Curran Treasurer of 2019

Karaghan Curran is a sophomore here at Marist College. She is a BioMedical Science major and an active member of ambassadors, Alpha Sigma Tau, and the American Chemical society. She wants to be the class of 2019 treasurer to bring new ideas, her outgoing personality, and to help fund and organize events

Allison Germano Vice President of 2019

Allison Germano is a Sophomore double majoring in Biology and Psychology. She is excited to continue organizing events for the Class of 2019 and collaborate with multiple clubs and organizations on campus to make it a welcoming environment!

Kristina Ultimo Vice President of 2020

Kristina Ultimo is re-running to be Class of 2020 Vice President for the 2017-2018 academic school year. She is a Fashion Design major with a dual minor in Fashion Merchandising and Music that is a part of the Marist Ambassadors, Marist Singers, Intramural Badminton, Fashion Inc., and Fox PAWS. She is running for this position because of her passion for Student Government, her want to make sure that all of our opinions and suggestions are voiced to Marist SGA, and her love for planning creative and fun events to get the community involved.

Mariah Sepulveda Resident Senator

Mariah Sepulveda is currently a freshman here at Marist College, majoring in Communications. As a part of Student Government Association she looks forward to helping our campus grow in diversity, opportunity, and acceptance. She knows she will be an asset to the Student Government Association and positive impact if she gets the chance to continue her current position as Resident Senator next semester.

Jay Silver Resident Senator

Jay Silver is running for Resident Senator for the 2017 – 2018 term. Hi is a political science major who is heavily involved in the Marist College Singers, serves as the Leo Hall Residence Hall Council Vice-President and Junior Senator for the Student Government Association, and is involved with the Marist College Club of Theatre Arts and Marist Game Society and is also an Eagle Scout. He is running for the Senate to serve as a voice for the students, to further strengthen campus unity and to make a difference in the community.